Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 12 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Sunny spells on Thursday. Scattered showers breaking out.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers dying away this evening then a dry night with clear periods. A few mist and fog patches forming later tonight. Quite chilly in places. Light winds. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Early mist soon dispersing to leave another bright day with sunny spells. Scattered showers again developing later in the morning with a few heavier showers in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A lot of dry weather with some sunny intervals, but also a few showers which could be quite heavy. Mostly light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.